A fingerprint-based criminal offender records check of national crime information databases is not required for an application for renewal of a Certificate of Approval or Child-
Specific Certificate of Approval, unless an applicant or other adult member of the household has lived outside of Oregon for more than 60 consecutive days within the two-year certification period or has been arrested or convicted during the two-year certification period.

(A) Assess any safety concerns regarding the fitness of an applicant, other adult member of the household, and previously approved respite provider or child care pursuant to OAR 413-120-0450 and 413-120-0455; and

(C) If an applicant or other member of the household has a disqualifying conviction under OAR 413-120-0450 (3) or (4) or the authorized designee makes a negative fitness determination with respect to the individual, the Department will proceed under OAR 413-120-0460 and issue a proposed and final order denying certification unless the applicant withdraws application.

(D) If the previously approved respite provider or child care provider has a new disqualifying conviction under OAR 413-120-0450(3) or (4) or the authorized designee makes a negative fitness determination with respect to the individual, the Department will proceed to notify the certified family of the determination.

(f) Assure completion of child abuse history background checks for each applicant and each other adult member of the household, excluding any young adult in the care and custody of the Department placed in the home, previously approved respite care provider, and previously approved child care provider.

(A) If an applicant or other adult member of the household, excluding a young adult in the care of the Department and placed in the home, previously approved respite care provider, or previously approved child care provider has lived outside the state of Oregon or outside of the United States for more than 60 consecutive days during the two-year certification period, a child abuse history background check must be obtained from each state and requested from each country where the individual resided during the two-year certification period.

(B) Assess any safety concerns regarding the applicant, other adult member of the household, excluding a young adult in the care or custody of the Department and placed in the home, previously approved respite care provider, or previously approved child care provider raised by information learned from the child abuse history background check.
(C) When an applicant or other adult member of the household, excluding a young adult in the care or custody of the Department and placed in the home, has been identified as the perpetrator or possible perpetrator, or respondent of abuse or neglect in a child protective services assessment in a founded disposition, substantiated disposition, unable to determine disposition, or inconclusive disposition for abuse or neglect to a child or child or young adult in the care or custody of the Department, or a similar disposition from another division of the Department, agency or state, which has not previously been approved, consult with the certification supervisor about whether to seek approval from the District Manager or designee to continue with the assessment for renewal:

(i) If the decision is to seek approval, the District Manager or designee must consider the information and safety concerns and may approve or deny continuing the assessment for renewal.

(ii) If the decision in subparagraph (i) of this paragraph is to deny continuing with the assessment for renewal, the Department may terminate the assessment process and, unless the application is withdrawn, proceed to deny the application under OAR 413-200-0296.

(iii) The information considered, including the safety concerns assessed, and the decision must be documented on a form approved by the Department.

(D) When the previously approved respite or child care provider has been identified as the perpetrator or possible perpetrator, or respondent of abuse or neglect in a child protective services assessment in a founded disposition, substantiated disposition, unable to determine disposition, or inconclusive disposition for abuse or neglect to a child or a child or young adult in the care or custody of the Department, or a similar disposition from another division of the Department, agency or state, which has not previously been approved, consult with the certification supervisor about whether to seek approval from the District Manager or designee:

(i) If the decision is to seek approval, the District Manager or designee must consider the information and safety concerns and may approve or deny continuing the assessment of the respite provider;

(ii) If the decision in subparagraph (i) of this paragraph is to proceed with approval of the respite or child care provider, notify the certified family of the Department’s determination.
(iii) The information considered, including the safety concerns assessed, and the decision must be documented on a form approved by the Department.

(g) Review and assess whether conditions appear to exist in the home that affect the safety, health, or well-being of a child or young adult in the care or custody of the Department.

(h) Review and analyze the certified family's skills and abilities in maintaining conditions in the home that provide safety, health, and well-being and ability to meet the safety, health, and well-being needs for the child or young adult in the care or custody of the Department, maintaining relationships with the community and the Department, supporting the case plan of the child or young adult and the certified family’s compliance with OAR 413-200-0301 to 413-200-0396.

(i) When recommending renewal of the certification, update the home study on a form approved by the Department, including results of the assessment activities completed in subsections (a) to (h) of this section, and submit to the certification supervisor for approval.

(4) Before the Department may renew a certification, a certification supervisor must:

(a) Assure the certifier has completed all assessment activities required by subsections (3)(a) to (i) of this rule and review the certifier’s assessment of the certified family;

(b) Review the home study update; and

(c) Determine whether to approve or deny the application for renewal.

(5) When the certification supervisor approves the application for renewal, the Department may issue a new Certificate of Approval or Child-Specific Certificate of Approval, valid for two years from the expiration date of the current Certificate of Approval or Child-Specific Certificate of Approval.

(6) If the certification supervisor decides not to approve the application for renewal, the Department must proceed to deny the application as outlined in OAR 413-200-0296 unless the certified family voluntarily withdraws their application as provided in OAR 413-200-0314. The current certificate continues until its expiration date unless the Department proceeds to revoke the certificate as outlined in OAR 413-200-0296 or the certified family requests to voluntarily terminate the certificate and the Department accepts the family’s request. If the certificate did not expire under section (7) of this rule and the certified family withdraws the application, the certificate terminates.

the stated expiration date on the certified family's Certificate of Approval or Child-Specific Certificate of Approval, the certified family's Certificate of Approval does not expire until the Department has issued a new Certificate of Approval or Child-Specific
