(Amended 08/06/17)

(1) OAR 413-070-0010 to 413-070-0030 implement the Multiethnic Placement Act of 1994, which applies to all activities of the Department and to all private child placement and adoption agencies who directly or indirectly receive federal funds.

(2) The purpose of OAR 413-070-0010 to 413-070-0030 is to:
   (a) Decrease the length of time a child waits to be adopted;
   (b) Prevent discrimination in foster care and adoption; and
   (c) Promote the recruitment of ethnic and minority families that reflect the children in the child welfare system. These rules establish a policy of non-discrimination in the practice of foster and adoptive placement of children, and in the recruitment and selection of family resources.

(3) OAR 413-070-0010 to 413-070-0030 do not apply to the placement of children pursuant to the Indian Child Welfare Act. In the case of an Indian child, the Department and entity follow the Indian Child Welfare Act and OAR chapter 413, division 115.

Denials or Delays of Placement Based on Race, Color or National Origin Prohibited
(Amended 07/17/15)

(1) In making placement decisions, the Department and entity must be guided by the best interest of the child. Placements must be made in the context of an individualized assessment of the needs of the child, and an assessment of the ability of a potential foster or adoptive family to meet those needs.

(2) Except as provided in section (3) of this rule the Department and entity may not delay or deny the placement of a child for adoption or into foster care on the basis of the race, color, or national origin of the adoptive or foster parent or the child involved or consider the race, color, or national origin of a child or of a prospective adoptive or foster parent as factors in making adoptive or foster placement decisions.
(3) The Department and entity may only consider the race, color, or national origin when an individualized assessment of the child identifies compelling special circumstances, such as an older child’s statement of preference, and consideration of race, color, or national origin in the placement decision is the only way to achieve the best interest of that child.

(4) The Department and entity may consider the needs of a child related to cultural heritage, such as specific language needs, when making individualized placement decisions. However, the Department and entity may not use routine cultural heritage assessments as a substitute for considering race, color, or national origin or otherwise considering the cultural heritage needs of a child in a manner that would circumvent the general prohibition against considering the race, color, or national origin of a child when making placement decisions.

(5) The Department and entity may not honor the request of birth parents to place their child who was either voluntarily or involuntarily removed, with adoptive or foster parents of a specific racial, ethnic, or cultural group, except as provided in section (2) of this rule.

(1) Except as provided in section (2) of this rule, the Department and entity may not deny to any individual the opportunity to become an adoptive or foster parent on the basis of the race, color, or national origin of the individual or the child involved, nor may the Department and entity use race, color, or national origin to screen or assess prospective foster or adoptive applicants.

(2) The Department and entity may consider the willingness and ability of the prospective foster or adoptive parent to care for a child of a different race, color, or national origin as a factor when placing a child.

Consideration of APPLA as a Permanency Plan
(Amended 10/01/15)

(1) Department consideration of APPLA as a permanency plan must be based on the individual safety, permanency, and well-being needs of a child who has reached the age of 16 or young adult. The age or disability of a child or young adult is never a disqualifier for a more preferred permanency plan.

(2) The Department may only consider APPLA as a permanency plan for a child who has reached the age of 16 or young adult only if the Department has determined it is not in the best interests of the child or young adult to implement one of the following preferred permanency plans:

(a) Placement with a parent;
(b) Placement in an adoptive home;
(c) Placement with a legal guardian; or
(d) Placement with a fit and willing relative.

(3) Prior to consideration of a foster parent as the APPLA resource, the caseworker and his or her supervisor must:

Visitation Rights
(Amended 3/5/2019)

(1) The child or young adult, a parent or guardian, and each sibling have the right to visit one another while the child or young adult is in substitute care. The child or young adult, the parent or guardian, and each sibling have the right to visit as often as reasonably necessary to maintain and enhance their attachment to one another.

(2) The Department will prohibit or cancel visits, unless otherwise ordered by the court, when:

(a) There is reason to believe acts or omissions of a parent or guardian would result in child abuse during the visit;

(b) The safety of the child or young adult cannot be managed by supervision;

(c) The visit does not meet the best interests of the child or young adult; or

(d) A court order prohibits visits.
(3) When Department resources alone cannot meet the visit and contact needs of the parent and child or young adult, the caseworker must solicit help from family and community resources.

(4) If a parent or guardian objects to the contact and visit requirements and limitations that the Department imposes, the parent or guardian may speak with the caseworker or caseworker’s supervisor, request a Family Decision Meeting or seek juvenile court review of the requirements and limitations.

Determining Priority in Visit and Contact Plans
(Amended 3/5/2019)

(1) Unless the court has entered an order regarding visitation by the parents, guardians, siblings, or grandparents of the child or young adult, the caseworker determines a hierarchy of the attachments of the child or young adult and prioritizes visits with the parents or guardians and siblings. The caseworker may consider, in consultation with the caregiver, the preferences expressed by the child or young adult.
When the permanency plan is reunification with a parent or guardian, the priority of the caseworker is to provide visits with parents or guardians, siblings, and each intervenor granted visitation by the court.

When the permanency plan is a plan other than reunification with the parents or guardians, the visitation priority of the caseworker is to preserve attachment to parents or guardians and siblings and promote attachment of the child or young adult to the permanent placement resource.

When appropriate, the caseworker may establish visits between the child or young adult and extended family members.

When appropriate, the caseworker may establish visits between the child or young adult and non-related persons with whom the child or young adult has a significant attachment.

   (B) Terminates wardship over the child or young adult, unless the guardianship is a tribal court guardianship and the guardianship remains in effect under tribal law; or

   (C) Appoints another individual as guardian of the child or young adult.
Guardianship assistance may be suspended at any time by mutual agreement between the Department and the guardian.

After a review and on a case-by-case basis, the Department may terminate a guardianship assistance agreement upon ten calendar days written notice to the guardian when the Department determines that --
