Message:

The Office of Developmental Disabilities Services is announcing a training opportunity for adult foster care providers who want to access more information about Covid-19. Oregon Care Partners is offering a new free online class that covers the following information:

The definition of Covid-19;

Symptoms of Covid-19;

Identifies the chain of infection;

Discusses how Covid-19 is spread;

Reviews ways to stop the spread;

Discusses how to best care for yourself and the individuals you support who have Covid-19

The class meets the requirements for an Adult Foster Home annual training credit.

To access this course directly go to: <https://oregoncarepartners.com/app/#/class-details/1722>

For assistance with the course or more information on other courses offered by Oregon Care Partners contact <https://oregoncarepartners.com> or info@oregoncarepartners.com

CDDP licensors should share this information with their local adult foster care providers.
