

Welcome to the Guide to Services, a comprehensive reference guide for health care professionals and community partners when using the resources of the Oregon State Public Health Laboratory. If you have a disability and need this information in an alternate format, please contact OSPHL at 503-229-5296.

Please take a few minutes to familiarize yourself with the reference manual.

Guide To Services, located by Tab

Web

Users:

Printing Tip: In the Print Dialog box, checkmark the box for annotations, comments or documents & comments

General information

- General information
- Policies and services

Quick reference

- Submission of specimens
- Abbreviations & Acronyms
- Quick reference section

Shipping and transport

Request forms

- Request forms
- Supply ordering
- Kit availability

Fees and billing

Laboratory Compliance & Quality Assurance

- Clinical laboratory certification
- Clinical laboratory reportable conditions
- Laboratory Response Network

ORELAP

Serology collection

Chlamydia

Enteric bacteriology

Food microbiology

Gonorrhea

Hepatitis testing

HIV-1 Antibody testing

Miscellaneous serology

Newborn Screening

Parasitology

Pertussis

Prenatal screening serology

Rabies

Rubella serology

Syphilis serology

Tuberculosis

Virus culture/isolation/identification

Water microbiology