Information About Cash and Medical Benefits:

Cash for families is also known as Temporary Assistance for Needy Families or TANF.

If You Are Applying for Cash for Families Along With Medical Benefits:

“Assigning” payments

To qualify for public assistance, you must let DHS have any money you receive, or have the right to receive from:

- Private health insurance
- Other people or other sources who are, or may be, liable to cover costs paid by DHS related to an injury

By signing this form, you agree to “assign” to DHS all rights to these payments for anyone who is covered by your public assistance. That means yourself and other family members (including unborn children).

By signing this form, you agree to help DHS find and obtain these payments. There is a limit on how much DHS can take in payments. It cannot take more than the amount it has paid in assistance for you and your family.

You also agree that medical providers, hospitals, employers and government agencies can release medical records to insurance companies. This covers records about you and other family members on medical assistance. This will only be done for the purpose of getting payment.

If You Are Applying for Cash for Families:

What you need to know about “assigning support”:

“Support” means money you get for you or your children, like alimony or child support.

When you get Cash Benefits, you are “assigning” the state the right to keep the support you or anyone in your family get from another person. The money goes to repay the state for the cash you get.

This means that while you are getting cash benefits:

The state will keep all support payments received for you and members of your family who get cash benefits. This includes current and past-due payments.

When you leave the cash program:

- Current support payments will go to you.
- Any past-due payments for months you were on Cash Assistance will be kept by the state.
- Any past-due payments for months you were not on Cash Assistance may go to you.

Working with Child Support:

While you are getting cash benefits, you will need to work with the state’s Child Support Program.

Important: you do not have to work with child support if you think it would mean danger for you or your children.*

Working with child support can mean:

- helping to locate your child’s other parent;
- legally naming the child’s father (establishing paternity);
- getting a support order.

If You Are Applying for Medical Benefits:

When you get state Medical Benefits, DHS will pay your medical bills for covered services. During this time, you must let DHS have any money you get from private health insurance or from an injury. See page 8, “Assigning payments” for details.

Helping get other medical coverage:

You will need to work with DHS to try and get medical coverage or money for medical care from other sources. This means:

1. For yourself: You must try to get things such as:

- health insurance from your employer (DHS may be able to help you pay for this);
- insurance payments because of an injury;
- medical coverage from the Veteran’s Administration.

- 2. For your children: If the other parent isn't living with you, you may need to work with the Oregon Child Support Program to get insurance for the children.

Important: You do not have to work with child support if you think it would mean danger for you or your children.

Working with child support can mean:

- helping to locate your child's other parent;
- legally naming the child's father (establishing paternity);
- getting a medical support order.

If you are pregnant and you only want state medical coverage for yourself, you do not have to work with child support.

If you have other insurance:

If you or a member of your family have other medical insurance, tell the provider (doctor, clinic or hospital) before you get care. They must bill the other insurance company before they bill DHS.

If DHS pays a medical bill that should have been paid by insurance, DHS will take action to get its money back. For example:

- If DHS pays a bill that private insurance should have paid, DHS will try to get the money back from the insurance company.
- If DHS pays a medical bill and the provider also gets paid by an insurance company, DHS will try to get its money back from the provider.
- If DHS pays a medical bill and an insurance company sends you a check for it, DHS will try to get its money back from you.

The state's right to recover Medical Benefits from your estate:

DHS may claim money from your estate (as defined in ORS 414.105) after you die if:

- You got state Medical Benefits after you reach age 55 (this includes Oregon health Plan payments made on your behalf to a managed care plan); or
- You got General Assistance benefits at any age; or
- You got state medical benefits during your life, and at the time of your death you were under 55 and had been permanently institutionalized (as defined in OAR 461-135-0832) for at least 6 months.

These claims are meant to recover money the state paid for your medical benefits and services, and General Assistance benefits. DHS cannot claim more money than it paid in assistance for you and your family members.

DHS cannot claim this money if any of the following members of your family are still alive:

- your spouse,
- your children who are under the age of 21, or
- your children of any age who are blind or disabled.

If you die before your spouse, DHS will wait until your spouse dies before claiming any money. For more information, please see SDS form 9093.

The Department of Human Services (DHS) will not discriminate against anyone. This means DHS will help all who qualify. DHS will not deny help to anyone based on age, race, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, religion, political beliefs or disability. You can file a complaint if you think DHS discriminated against you because of any of these reasons.

The United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) and Health and Human Services (HHS) are equal opportunity providers and employers. “Equal Opportunity is the Law!”

To file a complaint with USDA and HHS, please read the “Client Discrimination Complaint Information” form (DHS 9001). You can find this form in the Information and Referral Packet (DHS 6609).

Why we need your Social Security Number

When you apply for most DHS programs, we need to get Social Security Numbers (SSN) for you and the other people who want benefits. Under the law (42 USC.1320b-7(a) and 7USC 2011-2036), we must do this.

Your Social Security Number helps DHS figure out which benefits you can get. It is used to check your income and other assets.

It also helps us check other state and Federal records such as IRS, Medicaid, Social Security, Child Support and Unemployment benefits.

Social Security Numbers also help DHS gather information about wages and work history for research. This helps improve services in the future. You do not have to be part of this research. You cannot be denied services for telling DHS you do not want to take part in research.

Information About Your Rights and Responsibilities:

By signing below I agree that:

I have given DHS true, correct and complete information.

I understand that making false statements or hiding information may mean state and Federal penalties.

DHS can review my case. This could include coming to my home.

I declare I am a resident of Oregon.

I will report changes in information I give DHS when DHS requires me to.

I have given true citizenship information about myself and the others I am applying for.

I know that DHS will check the immigration status of people who apply for or get benefits. I know the information DHS gets from the United States Citizenship and Immigration Service (USCIS) could affect who gets benefits. DHS will not contact USCIS for anyone not seeking benefits.

I authorize release of my child support records from the Department of Justice (DOJ), Division of Child Support (DCS) to DHS.

The adults under age 60 on this form who apply for Food Benefits (Food Stamps) will register for the state's employment program. If I add people to the program in the future, they will also register.

If I do not give DHS the Social Security Number for someone who wants benefits, that person may not be able to get them.

DHS will not use costs for shelter, medical, child care and court ordered child support to figure my benefits if I do not report them.

DHS may use computers to check all the information on this form. This includes matching with bank, income and unemployment-benefit records.

DHS can use Social Security Numbers for the purposes listed on page 11. This also covers people on the application who are under 18 years old.

DHS may give the information on this application to:

- Federal and state agencies who are doing reviews;
- Law-enforcement officials, to help them arrest someone who is fleeing from the law;
- Federal and state agencies and private collection agencies, if I have to repay benefits to DHS.

People applying for cash benefits: I am giving the state the right to keep support payments, as explained on pages 8-10. I understand I do not have to work with the Child Support program if it would mean danger for me or my children.

People applying for Medical Benefits: I understand the information about Medical Benefits on page 8-10.

People applying for Cash, Child Care, Food and Medical Benefits: I understand the person who signs this form must repay benefits to DHS when there is an overpayment in my case. The adults in the Food Stamp household during the time of overpayment must also repay.

People applying for cash and food benefits: I understand I cannot get food benefits from the Tribal Food Distribution program and the Food Stamp program at the same time. I also cannot get Tribal TANF from a tribe and TANF cash benefits from DHS at the same time.

I affirm under penalty of perjury that the statements made about persons in my home, income, resources, property and all other information I have given DHS and their contractors are true and correct.

I will give proof of the information I have given DHS. I will also let DHS contact other people and agencies to get proof.

Declaration and Signature:

I have read and understand my rights and responsibilities as explained above and in the DHS 415R, and I have a copy of the form.

For Cash and Medical Benefits, do not sign if you are bringing this in person.
