Eligibility Status
(Amended 10/01/2020)

Each Title IV-E eligibility determination must result in an eligibility status based on the following criteria:

1. Eligible and Reimbursable. The child or young adult is determined to have met all the Title IV-E eligibility requirements and is in one of the following placement types:

   (a) A foster family home that is fully certified with all safety requirements of 471(a)(20)(D) of the Social Security Act complete;

   (b) A supervised setting that is approved by the Department, in which a young adult is living independently;

   (c) A QRTP, when all the following requirements are also met:

      (A) Within 30 days of placement, the child or young adult has received an Independent Assessment for QRTP, as defined in 413-095-0000, that supports the QRTP level of care. If the assessment does not support the QRTP level of care, the child or young adult remains eligible and reimbursable for 30 days after this decision.

      (B) Within 60 days of placement, the court has approved the QRTP level of care. If the court does not approve the QRTP level of care, the child or young adult remains eligible and reimbursable for 30 days after the court's decision.

(d) A setting specializing in providing prenatal, post-partum, or parenting supports for youth; or

(e) A setting providing high-quality residential care and supportive services to children who have been found to be sex trafficking victims or are at risk of becoming sex trafficking victims.

(f) For the first 14 days of placement in a placement type described in OAR 413-100-0060(3).

(2) Eligible and Not Reimbursable. The child or young adult is determined to have met all the Title IV-E eligibility requirements, and at least one of the following circumstances applies:

(a) For a period of not more than 180 days, in which an eligible child is placed in the home of a relative who has been issued a Temporary Certificate of Approval.

(b) For a period of not more than one calendar month during placement in a facility not eligible for payments when an otherwise eligible child or young adult transitions directly into Title IV-E reimbursable placement, as described in OAR 413-100-0060.

(c) For the duration of an eligible child or young adult’s runaway status.

(d) For up to six months, or no later than the last day of a court-ordered extension, when an eligible child is on trial reunification.

(e) For the duration of an eligible child or young adult’s receipt of SSI benefits, when the Department has applied to be, or is the payee of SSI benefits.

(f) For the duration of an eligible child or young adult receiving an independent living subsidy;

(g) For the duration of an eligible child or young adult's placement in a QRTP if the Independent Assessment for QRTP, as defined in OAR 413-095-0000, does not occur within the first 30 days of placement in the QRTP.

(h) For the duration of an eligible child or young adult's placement in a QRTP if the court does not make a determination regarding the placement within the first 60 days of placement in the QRTP.

(i) After the first 14 days of placement in a placement type described in OAR 413-100-0060(3).
(3) Ineligible. The child or young adult is determined to not meet all the Title IV-E eligibility criteria for any of the following reasons:

(a) Permanent. A child is permanently ineligible for Title IV-E foster care maintenance payments for the entire substitute care episode when the Department determines the child is ineligible because:

(A) The Department did not obtain a judicial determination at the time of removal that it was in the best interest of the child to be removed from the home;

(B) The Department did not obtain a judicial determination of reasonable efforts to prevent removal within 60 days;

(C) The Department did not obtain a judicial finding of best interest to continue placement within 180 days of a child’s voluntary placement;

(D) The Department is unable to determine whether the child would have been eligible for AFDC based on Oregon administrative rules in effect on July 16, 1996; or

(E) The Department determines that a child did not live with a specified relative for some period during the six months prior to removal.

(b) Temporary. A child or young adult is temporarily ineligible for Title IV-E maintenance payments when any of the following apply:

(A) The child is placed in the month prior to the month in which the court made a finding that it was in the child’s best interest to be removed.

(B) The Department does not obtain a permanency finding of reasonable efforts to achieve the permanent plan within the required timelines.

(C) The child or young adult is in a placement that is not Title IV-E reimbursable, as described in OAR 413-100-0060.

(D) The parent or parents establish residency in the home in which the child or young adult resides, and one or both parents are providing caretaking responsibility for the child or young adult.

Effective Date
(Amended 10/01/2020)

(1) When completing an initial determination pursuant to OAR 413-100-0125 to 413-100-0240, the child’s Title IV-E eligibility status will be effective the first day of placement.

(2) When completing an annual redetermination pursuant to OAR 413-100-0270, the child’s Title IV-E eligibility status will be effective 365 days from the date the child was considered to have entered foster care and every 12 months thereafter.

(3) When completing a redetermination as a result of a change in a child or young adult’s placement, the child or young adult’s Title IV-E eligibility status will be effective the date of the new placement. Placement changes affecting Title IV-E eligibility:

(a) The child moves from a foster home that has a Temporary Certificate of Approval to a foster home that has a Certificate of Approval.

(b) The child moves from a foster home that has a Certificate of Approval to a foster home that has a Temporary Certificate of Approval.

(c) The child or young adult is placed with the parent on trial reunification, and the Department retains placement and care responsibilities.

(d) The child returns to a foster care placement within six months of the start of a trial reunification, and the Department has continued placement and care responsibilities.

(e) The child or young adult moves to a placement that is not Title IV-E reimbursable.

(f) The child leaves the foster care placement and is considered to have run away.

(g) The child or young adult is placed in a QRTP and:

   (A) The Independent Assessment is not completed within 30 days of the placement;

   (B) The Independent Assessment is completed and does not support the QRTP level of care;

   (C) The court does not rule on the appropriateness of the placement within 60 days of placement; or

   (D) The court disapproves the QRTP placement.
(4) When completing a redetermination because the child’s current foster home has been issued a Certificate of Approval, the child or young adult’s Title IV-E eligibility status will be effective the first day of placement in the month in which all certification criteria are met.

(5) When completing a redetermination because the foster parent’s Certificate of Approval is expiring or being revoked, the child or young adult’s Title IV-E eligibility status will be effective the day the certificate expires or is revoked.

(6) When completing a redetermination because a child care institution is not meeting the requirements of OAR 413-095-0030(1), the child or young adult’s eligibility status will be effective the first day those requirements are not met.

(7) When completing a redetermination because a child care institution is now meeting the requirements of OAR 413-095-0030(1), the child or young adult’s eligibility status will be effective the first day those requirements are met.

(8) When completing a redetermination because the Department has obtained a judicial finding of best interest in a month subsequent to the month in which the child was placed in foster care, and the finding is made at the first hearing addressing the child’s removal, the child’s Title IV-E eligibility status will be effective the first day of the month in which the finding was made.

(9) When completing a redetermination because the Department has not obtained a permanency finding of reasonable efforts to achieve the permanent plan within the required timelines, the child or young adult’s Title IV-E eligibility status will be effective the last day of the month in which the finding was required.

(10) When completing a redetermination because the Department obtained a delayed judicial finding, the child or young adult’s Title IV-E eligibility status will be effective the first day of the month in which the finding is made.

(11) When completing a redetermination because the Department did not obtain a finding of best interest within 180 days of a child or young adult’s voluntary placement, the child or young adult’s Title IV-E eligibility status will be effective on the 181st day from placement.

(12) When completing a redetermination because of a child or young adult’s approved application for SSI benefits, the child or young adult’s eligibility status will be effective the first day of the month subsequent to the application month.

(13) When completing a redetermination because a child or young adult is no longer receiving SSI benefits, the child or young adult’s eligibility status will be effective the first day of the month after the SSI benefits end.

(14) When completing a redetermination because the parent or parents establish residency in the home in which the child or young adult resides and one or both parents are providing caretaking responsibility for the child or young adult, the child or young adult’s eligibility status will be effective the date in which the parent moved into the home.

(15) When completing a redetermination because a young adult no longer meets the age requirements, as described in OAR 413-100-0230, the young adult’s eligibility status will be effective the date he or she no longer meets the age requirements.

(16) When verifying a candidate for foster care determination, the child’s eligibility status will be effective the date of the case plan that identifies the child as a candidate for foster care or a pregnant or parenting foster youth.
